This week in the Law School

This week offers many opportunities to get involved with some of our great student organizations. For new students, call-out meetings are the perfect opportunity to explore different interests, meet new people, and get involved with the school. If you don't see something you're interested in, don't fret -- more organizations will host similar meetings as we get into the semester. And you can always browse our list of student organizations to find something to get involved in.

Congratulations to 3rd year JD/MBA candidate Scott Miller, who last week was recognized at the Midwest Regional Bankruptcy Seminar in Cincinnati as a "Distinguished Law Student." Scott was one of four students in the Midwest to be recognized and was nominated by Prof. Pamela Foohey.

Classes will not meet next Monday, Sept. 3, in observance of Labor Day.

Monday, August 27

Jerome Hall Law Library Welcome Week

The Jerome Hall Law Library invites you to attend their 4th annual Welcome Week, a three-day event in the Library Lobby with food, drinks, and giveaways. This event is a great opportunity to get to know the friendly and helpful faculty and staff of the Law Library. Come for the coffee and donuts, stay for the library swag. Monday-Wednesday, Library Lobby, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Student Animal Legal Defense Fund Call-out Meeting

Please join SALDF to learn about our organization and discuss activities you would like to be involved in for the 2018-2019 academic year. For questions, contact James Schultz. Room 222, noon.

Outreach for Legal Literacy Tabling

Outreach for Legal Literacy will be tabling at lunch next week on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Please stop by our table and attend the Pro Bono call-out on Tuesday if you are interested in teaching in community schools this year. Returning members, please stop by and grab new paperwork. Main Lobby, noon to 1 p.m.

American Constitution Society Call-out Meeting

Join the American Constitution Society for its first event of the semester. This will be an informational meeting about ACS, we will discuss our programming for the year and hold 1L elections. Interested 1Ls should prepare a brief statement about why you would make an excellent 1L rep for ACS, and be prepared to make your case to your classmates. Lunch will be provided. Room 120, noon.

Business/Tax Law Societies Call-out Meeting

Come join the Tax Law Society and Business Law Society as we kick off the year with an informative meeting. BLS will start the meeting, and when they have finished TLS will take the floor. These two groups are great opportunities for anyone interested in tax, business, or anything that involves money. This group is for everyone. (I assume you all pay taxes...) We are excited to see you. Room 125, noon.

Sports and Entertainment Law Society Call-out Meeting

Come learn more about the Sports and Entertainment Law Society. We know there are multiple call-out meetings that day, so feel free to stop by after another call-out meeting or to email Hannah Michalek for more information. Lunch will be provided. Room 124, noon.

Federalist Society Call-out Meeting

Please join the Federalist Society to learn about the organization and how to get involved for the 2018-19 academic year. For questions, contact Christian Townsend. Room 121, noon.

Protective Order Project Returning Volunteer Refresher Training

This training is mandatory for all those interested in continuing to volunteer for the Protective Order Project. If you already attended new volunteer training once, then this is the training for you (even if you did not volunteer for POP last semester). Lunch will be provided. Room 122, noon.

Tuesday, August 28

Pro Bono Call-out Meeting

Interested in pro bono opportunities at Indiana Law? Come to the joint callout meeting where leaders from each group at the Law School will describe the opportunities that students have to make an impact on the Bloomington and surrounding community. Lunch will be served. Moot Court Room, noon.

CSO Craft and Chill Hour

See last week's entry or the events calendar for details. Career Services Office, noon to 1 p.m.

Latinx Law Student Association Call-out Meeting

Please join the Latinx Law Student Association (LLSA) for our call-out meeting to learn more about our organization and the events we have planned for this year. Dinner will be provided. Room 310, 5 p.m.

Wednesday, August 29

DOJ Honors/SLIP Application Assistance

As follow-up to the CSO session last week about applying to federal government positions, CSO Directors Alisa Rosales and Debbie Atlas, CSO Dean Anne McFadden, and Prof. Shana Wallace will be available to help you through the final stages of your DoJ Honors/SLIP applications (or help you get started if that is the case!). Come by with your questions and receive excellent guidance for how to make your application stand out. RSVP in CareerNet. Room 222, noon.

Thursday, August 30

International Law Society Call-out Meeting

Bom dia! Habari za asubuhi! Ohayou Gozaimasu! Did you know there are exciting opportunities for study abroad, international externships, and networking with international professionals at the Law School? The legal profession is becoming increasingly globalized, and it is likely that throughout your legal career you will experience some kind of international law. For all students interested in international law, please join us for our call-out meeting to learn about the International Law Society and our upcoming events. A non-pizza lunch will be provided! Room 124, noon.

PAD/Environmental Law Society Call-out Meeting

Come join Phi Alpha Delta and the Environmental Law Society for our annual call out meeting on August 30th during lunch. A non-pizza lunch will be provided and you can learn about opportunities to get involved with two great organizations within the Law School. Room 125, noon.

Health Law Society Call-out Meeting

Ever thought about how all of the changes in healthcare could affect your legal career? For all students interested in health law, please join us for a call-out meeting to learn about the Health Law Society and our upcoming events. Room 120, noon.

Graduate Colloquium

Join the graduate colloquium for a discussion about the international job search for academic positions. Prof. Yukio Tomi, '92, at Tokyo Metropolitan University in Japan and Prof. Zhenxing Ke, SJD'16, of Nankai University in China will give advice about international career development. All SJD, LLM thesis, and other students interested in finding academic positions are welcome to our first meeting. Lunch will be provided in Room 216, noon.

Friday, August 31

No events scheduled.

Saturday, August 25

No events scheduled.

Faculty and Staff News

Our outstanding 1L class was profiled by The Indiana Lawyer.

On August 9, 2018, Prof. Leandra Lederman spoke on a panel on Tax Compliance and Tax Privacy at the Southeastern Association of Law Schools (SEALS) meeting in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Her talk was on her work on tax evasion, including her recently posted article "Does Enforcement Reduce Voluntary Tax Compliance?". On August 10, she participated in a tax roundtable at SEALS, presenting a new project, "Is the Taxpayer Bill of Rights Enforceable?" In early August, Prof. Lederman was interviewed by Bloomberg regarding the decision of the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in Altera v. Commissioner, a case in which she participated in an amicus brief.

Prof. Ian Samuel authored an op-ed for The Guardian.

Prof. W. William Weeks, along with multiple co-authors, have published "Climate Change Challenges for Land Conservation: Rethinking Conservation Easements, Strategies, and Tools" in the Denver Law Review.

Announcements

Apply for Jessup International Moot Court Competition

Open to 2L, 3L, Exchange, and Graduate Students, this prestigious international competition, which awards 1 academic credit, includes two written memorials (analogous to a brief) in the fall and oral arguments in the spring. To apply, submit a current resume and a statement of interest (covering relevant experience and reasons for interest in the competition) to lawOSA@indiana.edu, with the subject line "Jessup Competition" no later than Thursday September 6 at noon.

Moot Court Competition Seeking Bailiffs

The Sherman Minton Moot Court Competition is seeking bailiffs for this year's competition. The competition provides a fun and engaging way for all students to sharpen their writing and advocacy skills, practice public speaking, and develop connections with alumni, attorneys, and judges. Unfortunately, students are not allowed to compete in the school-wide competition until their 2L year, but 1Ls can still participate this year as bailiffs. As a bailiff, you will be in charge of keeping time for each argument. This is a great opportunity to observe appellate argumentation before LRW oral arguments, and next year's competition; network with attorneys and judges; and meet 2Ls and 3Ls. If you're interested, feel free to reach out to Taylor Fontan or grab a sign up sheet outside the moot court office.

Basic Mediation and Restorative Justice Training

The Community Justice and Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 40-hour training program for community members interested in learning about conflict resolution, mediation, and restorative justice. Participants will enhance their interpersonal skills in communication and listening, problem solving, and negotiation, and they will increase their understanding of restorative justice philosophy and methods, the sources of conflict, and the processes leading to constructive conflict resolution. The training should benefit any community member concerned with managing conflict and its resolution. The training provides the background and skills necessary to work as a community mediator and restorative justice practitioner and qualifies participants to volunteer in CJAM's programs.

The fall training will take place from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. over five weekend days, September 15-16, 22-23, and 29 at the Law School. The training will be led by senior mediators and restorative justice practitioners. Tuition is $300, or $275 if received by August 27. Scholarships are available. For more information, e-mail training@ciamcenter.org or phone the office at (812) 336-8677. Go to our website, www.cjamcenter.org, to download an application. Payment can be made by credit card at the website or by check with your application.

About ILA

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) by emailing lawrooms@indiana.edu. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact James Boyd.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Carl James. Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
